THE VOLUME

Up to 10 leads a month

Two channels feed you, and they're independent of each other.

- ✓ ~3 quote requests a month from the website form — name, contact details, and what they need cleaned.
- ✓ Calls direct from the Google profile — 8 in the last full month, and climbing.
- ✓ Up to 10 leads a month total across both channels as the profile continues to mature.
- ✓ 100% yours. No lead is sold twice, and no second cleaner is bidding against you on it.

Lead volume is based on the six months of Google data shown above plus current website form submissions. It's a projection from real performance, not a guarantee — months vary with season and search demand.

WHY IT KEEPS GROWING

LocalSEOBot is already running on this site

The site isn't parked. An active local SEO program — a $199/month service on its own — is working on it every month, and it stays on after you take the territory.

Ongoing content & page work

City and service pages get expanded and refreshed so the site holds and improves its position in the map pack and organic results.

Profile & review upkeep

The Google profile stays active with posts and fresh reviews — the signals that keep it ranking and keep the calls coming.

THE MATH

What one job has to be worth

At $200 a month, the territory pays for itself the moment one lead becomes a customer.

- A single recurring house-cleaning client is typically worth $150–$250 per visit, two to four times a month — and they stay for months or years.
- Close one lead out of ten and the month is already profitable.
- Everything after that first close is margin — you're paying a flat $200 whether the month brings 4 leads or 12.

Job values are typical market rates for the Columbus area, shown to illustrate the math. Your actual revenue depends on your pricing and how you close.

QUESTIONS

Straight answers

Is this exclusive, or are you selling these leads to other cleaners?

Exclusive. One company owns this territory. Once it's claimed it comes off the market, and no lead is ever sold twice.

Am I locked into a contract?

No. It's month to month. Cancel any time and the territory goes back on the market.

Do I own the website and the Google profile?

No — we own and maintain the assets, and you own the leads they produce. That's what keeps your cost at $200 instead of the several thousand it takes to build and rank this from scratch.

What if I want to buy the whole thing outright?

The website and Google profile can be sold outright. Ask and we'll quote it.

How do the leads actually reach me?

Calls forward to your phone. Form submissions go by email, text, or straight into your CRM — whichever fits how you already work.

Do you take a cut of the jobs I close?

No. $200 a month, flat. What you earn from the work is entirely yours.

Can I answer the phone as my own company?

Yes. You handle every customer under your own name and brand.
